
Laurel-Concord Parent Survey Data

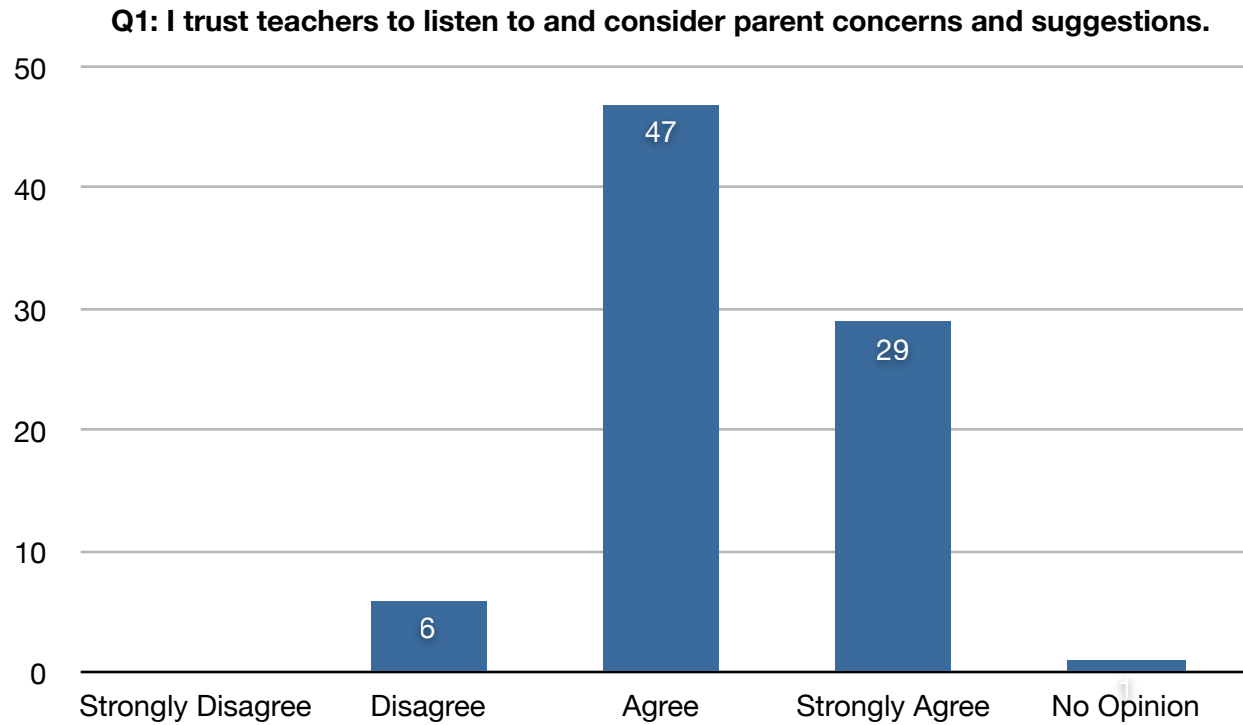

Administered as part of the 2009 School/Community Workshop

Prepared January 20, 2009

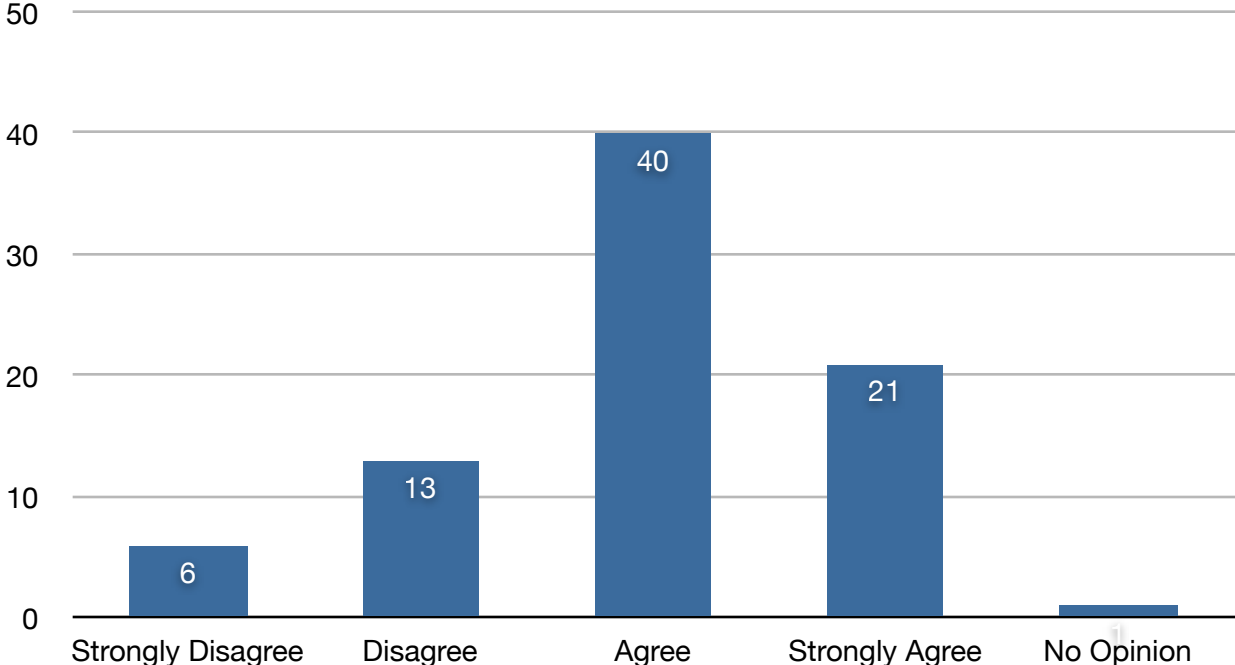

Section 1: School Relationships

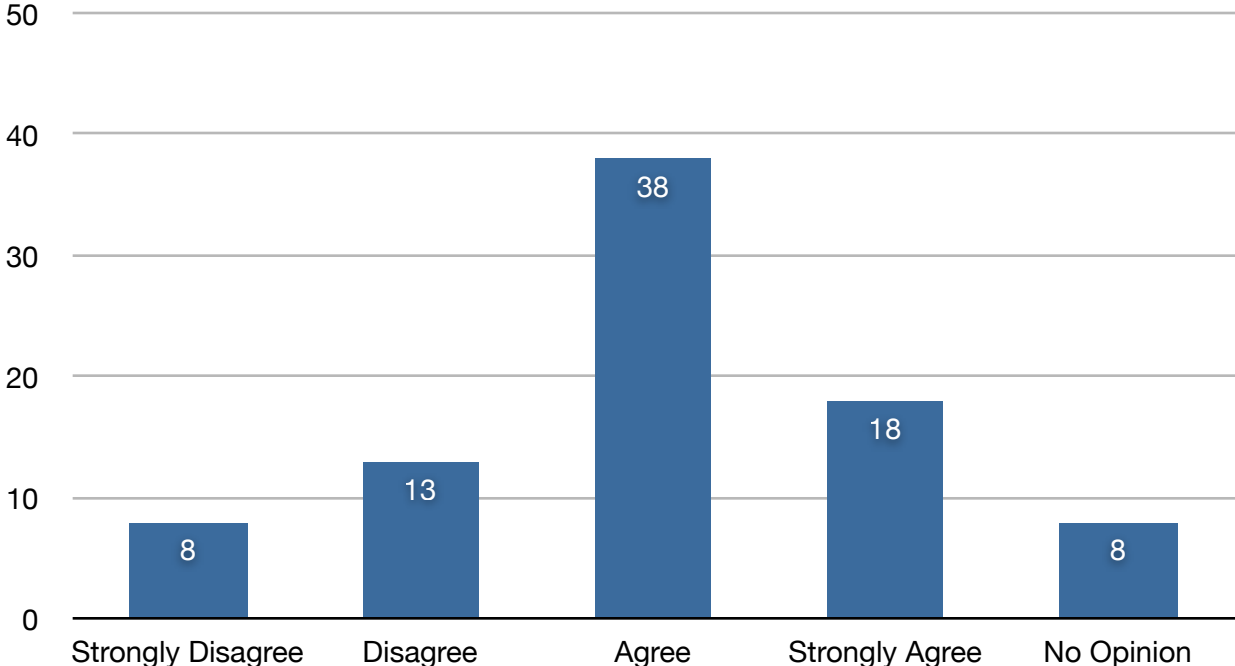

11 Questions

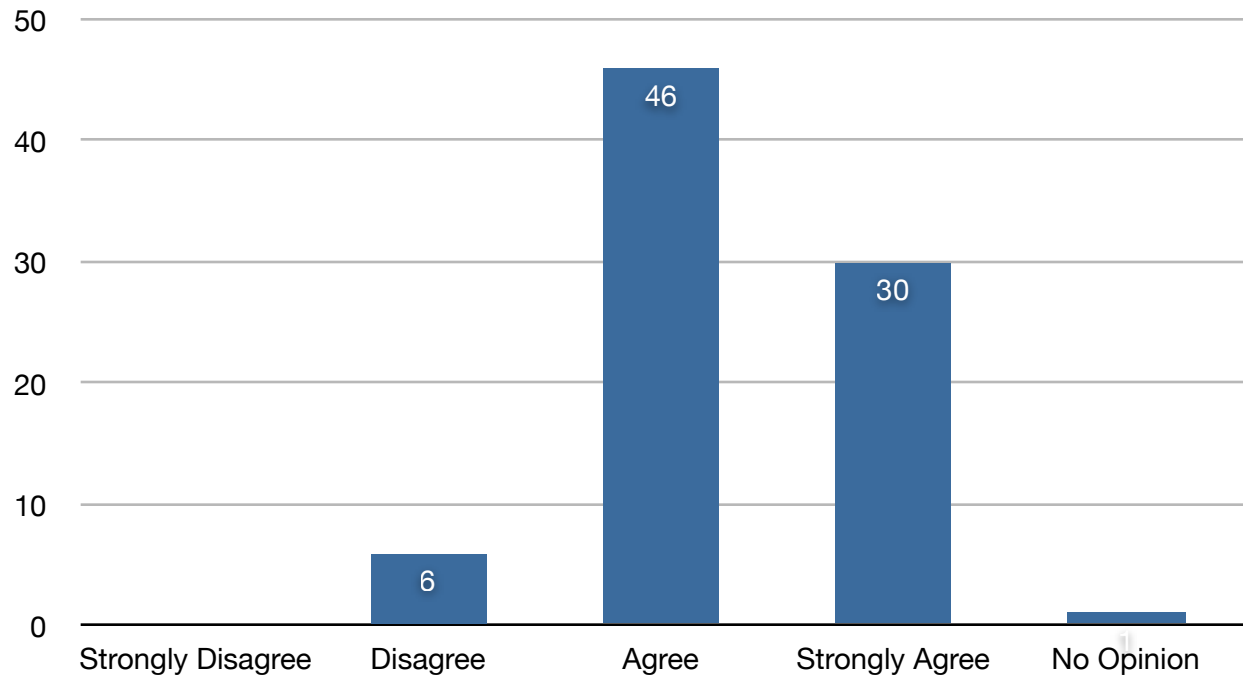

Q2: I trust school administrators to listen to and consider parent concerns and suggestions.

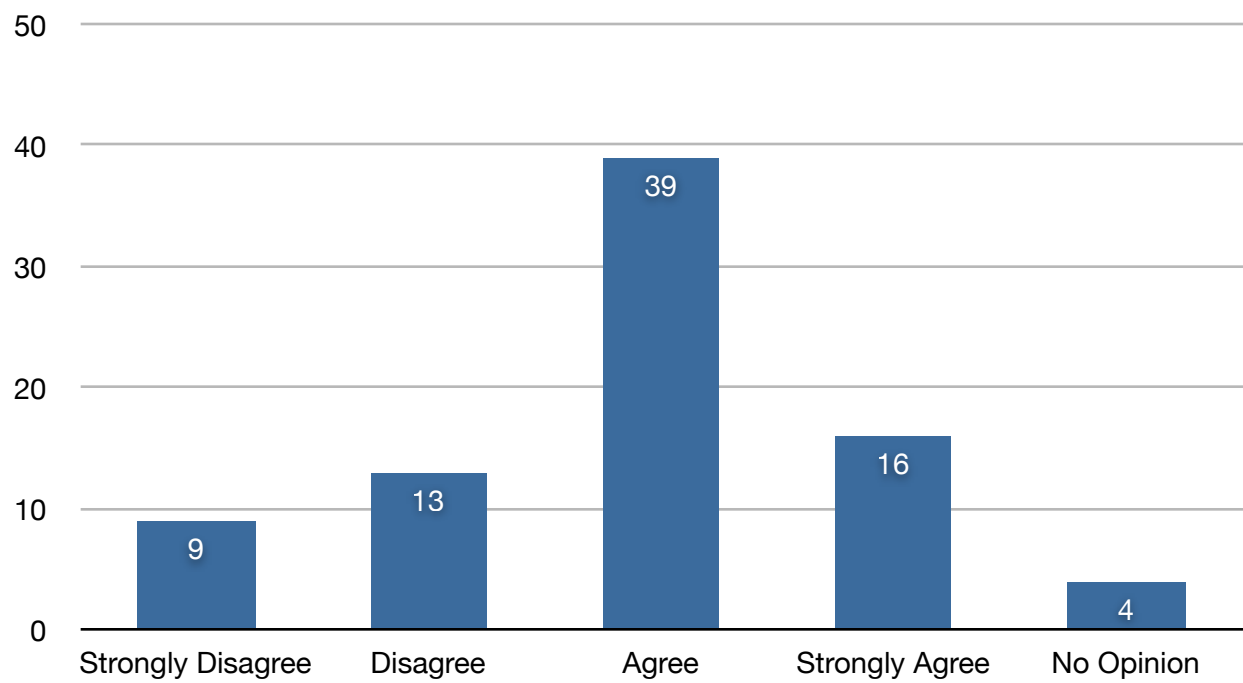

Q3: I trust school board members to listen to and consider parent concerns and suggestions.

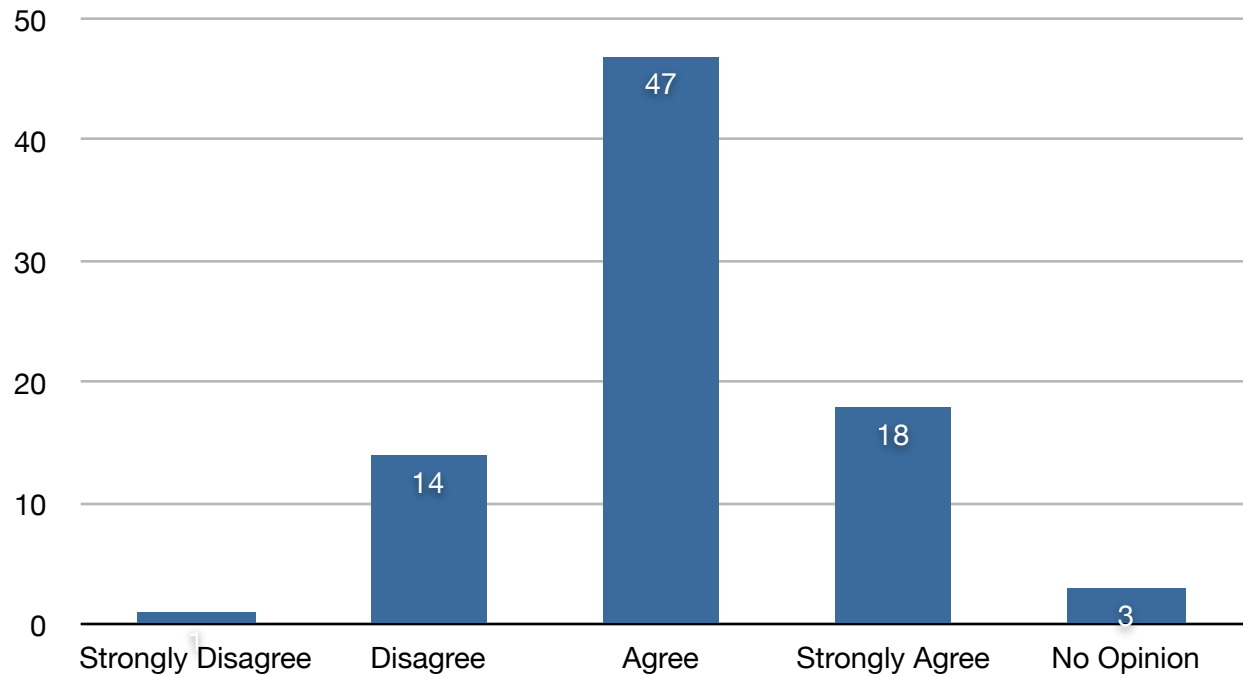

Q4: Teachers have positive, trusting relationships with students.

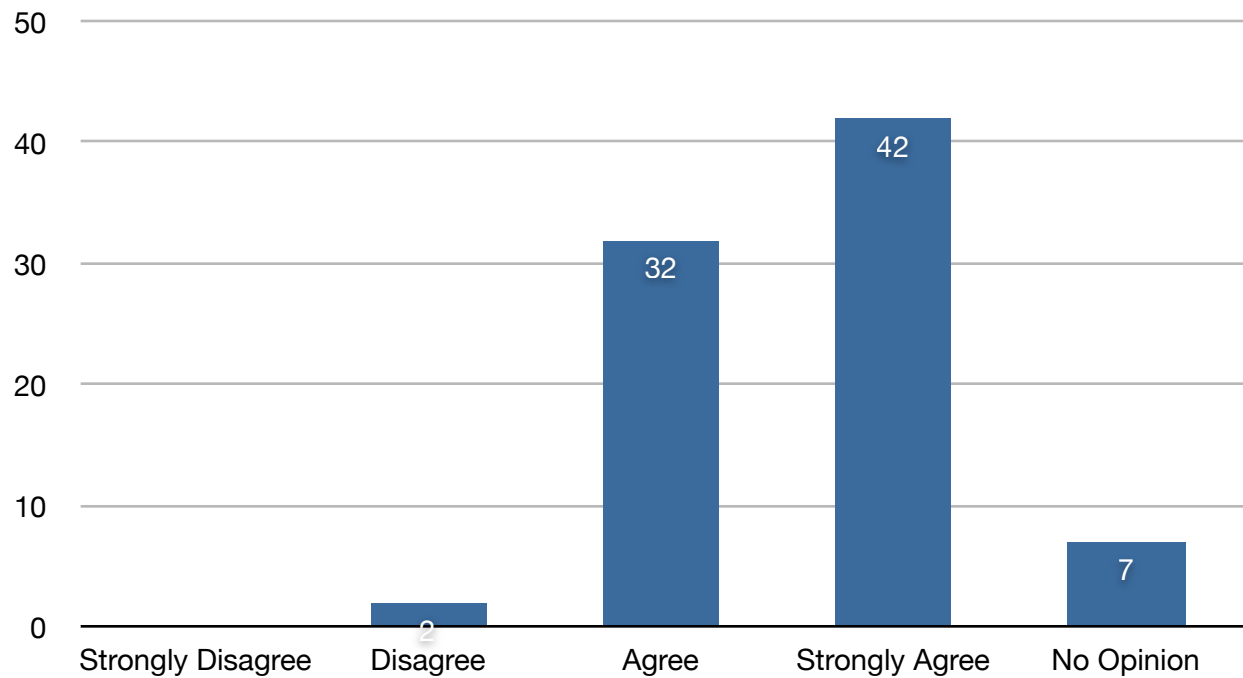

Q5: Bullying and harassment are effectively addressed in our schools.

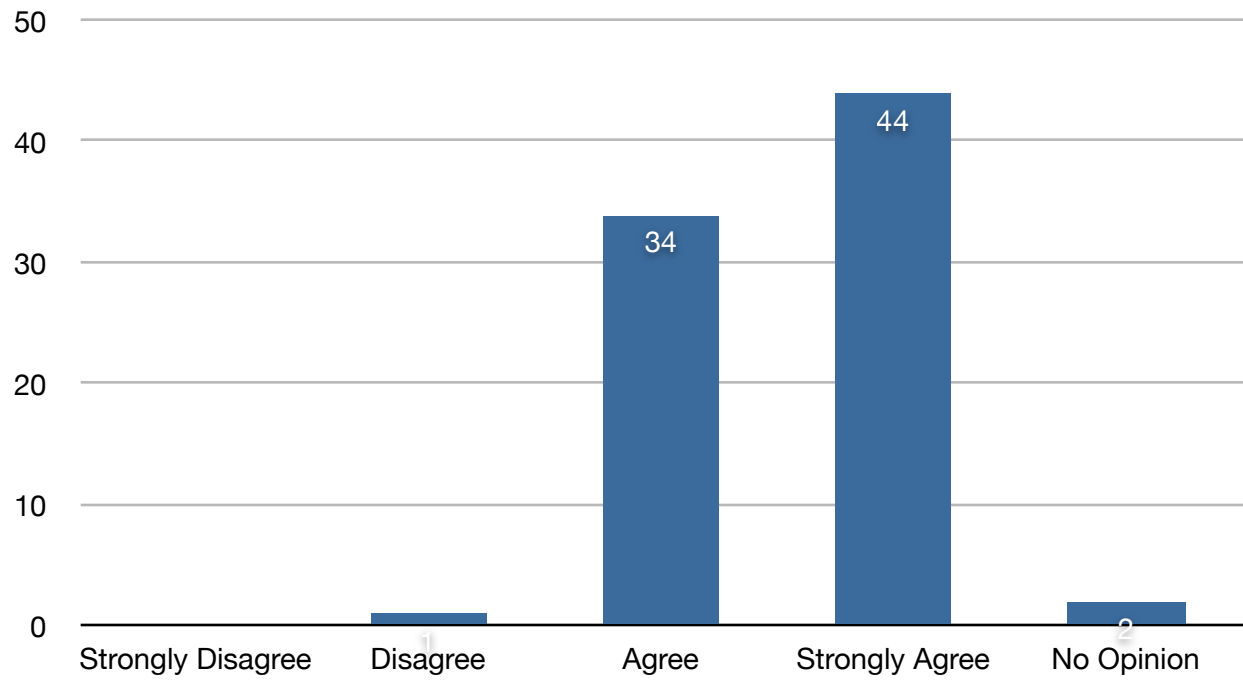

Q6: Teachers and administrators are fair and consistent in enforcing school policy and handbook.

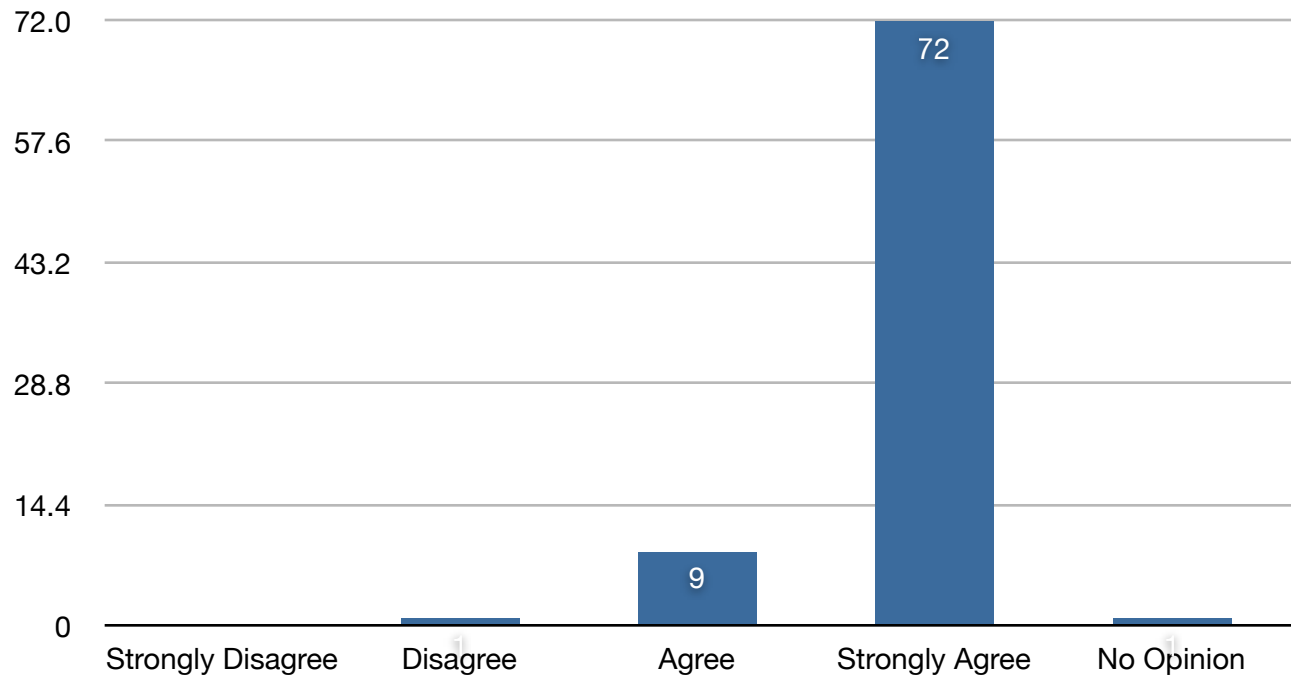

Q7: The district websites are effective at providing me with the information I need.

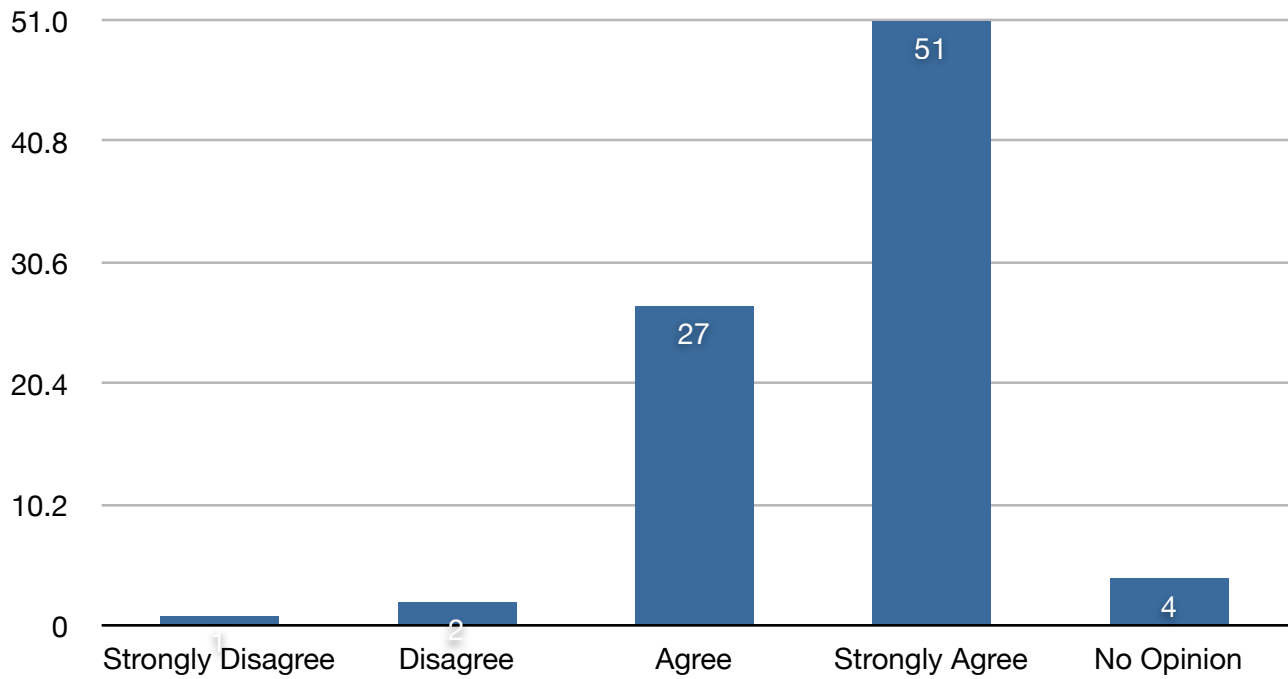

Q8: The district newsletters are effective at providing me the information / communication I need.

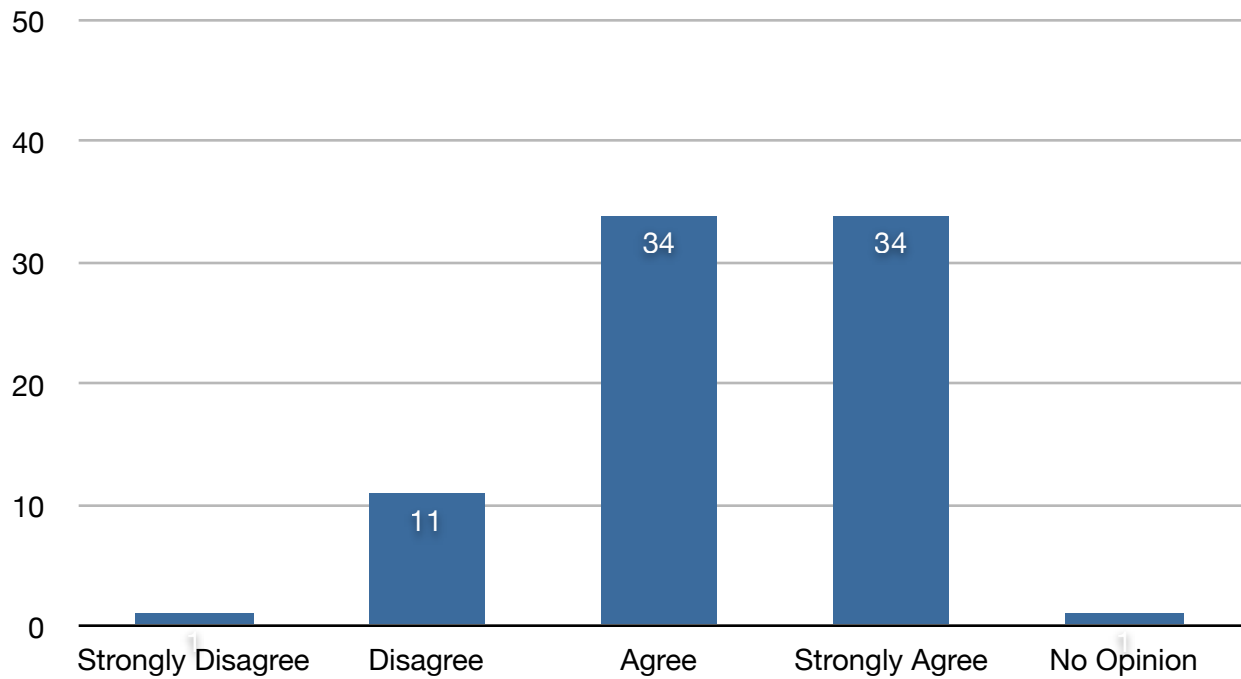

Q9: The School Reach telephone system is effective at providing me with the information and communication I need.

Q10: I have Internet access to check my child's grades and communicate with his/her teachers.

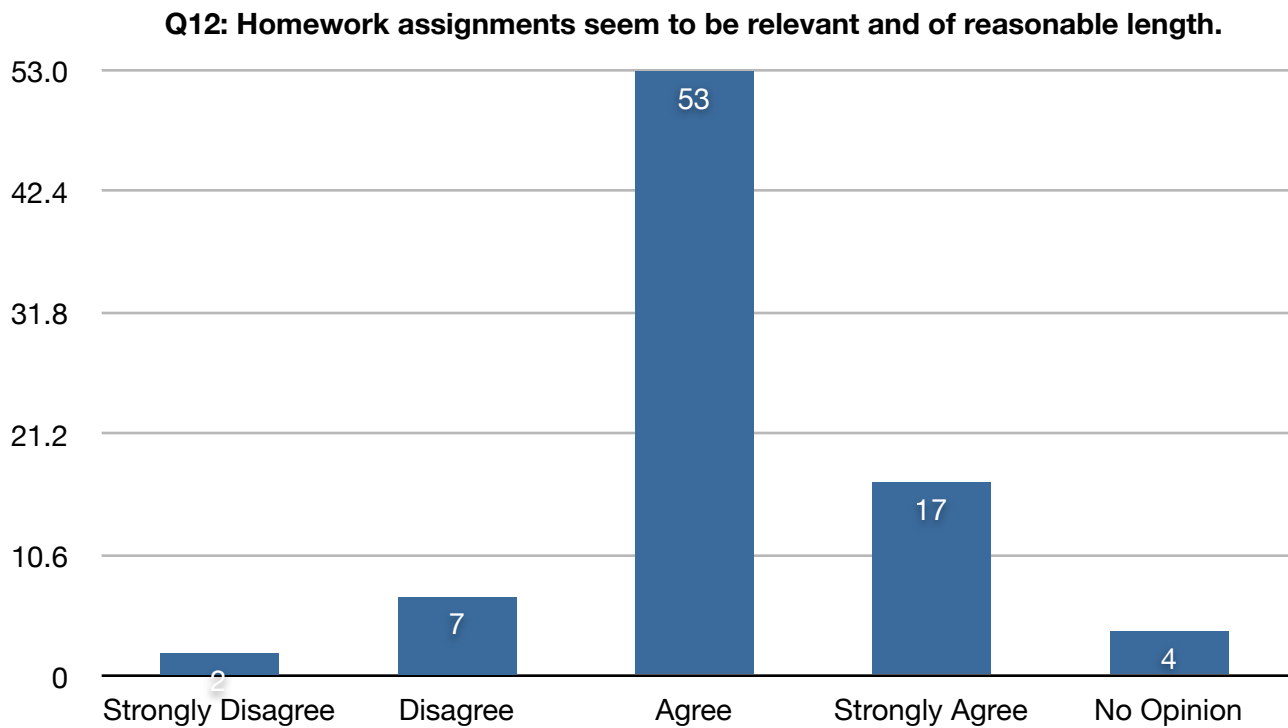

Q11: I feel I have access to school staff during the day and outside of school hours to assist students and parents.

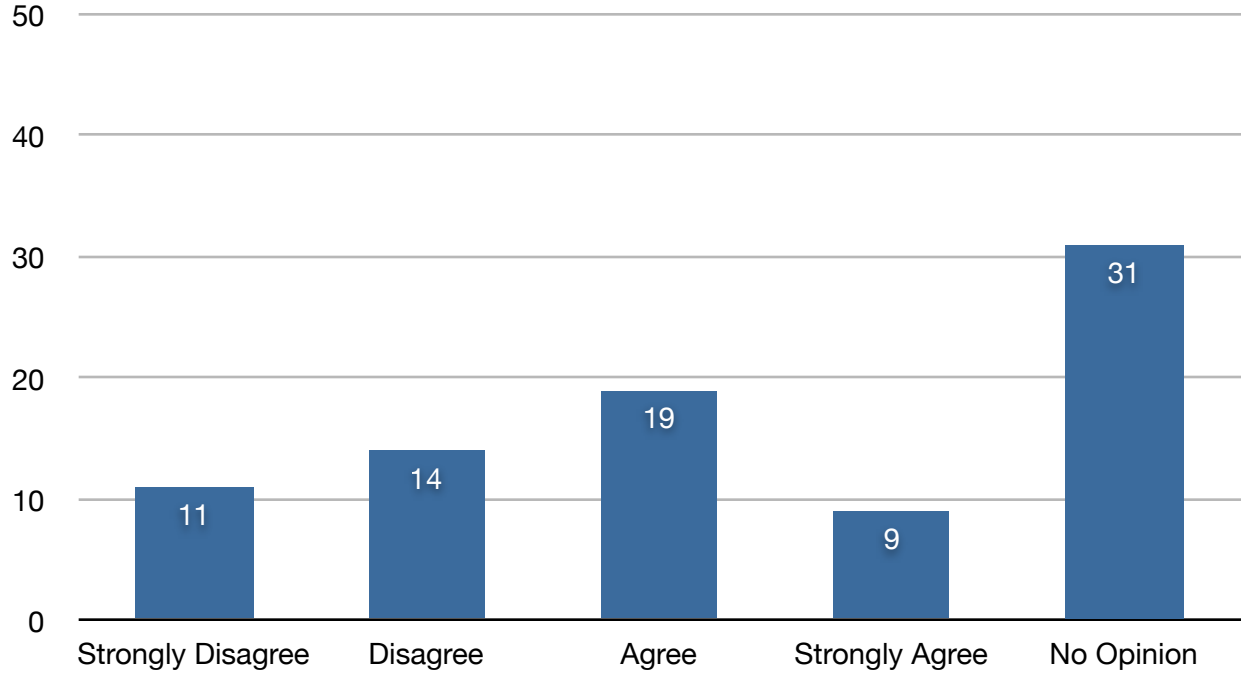

Section 2: Learning and School Operations

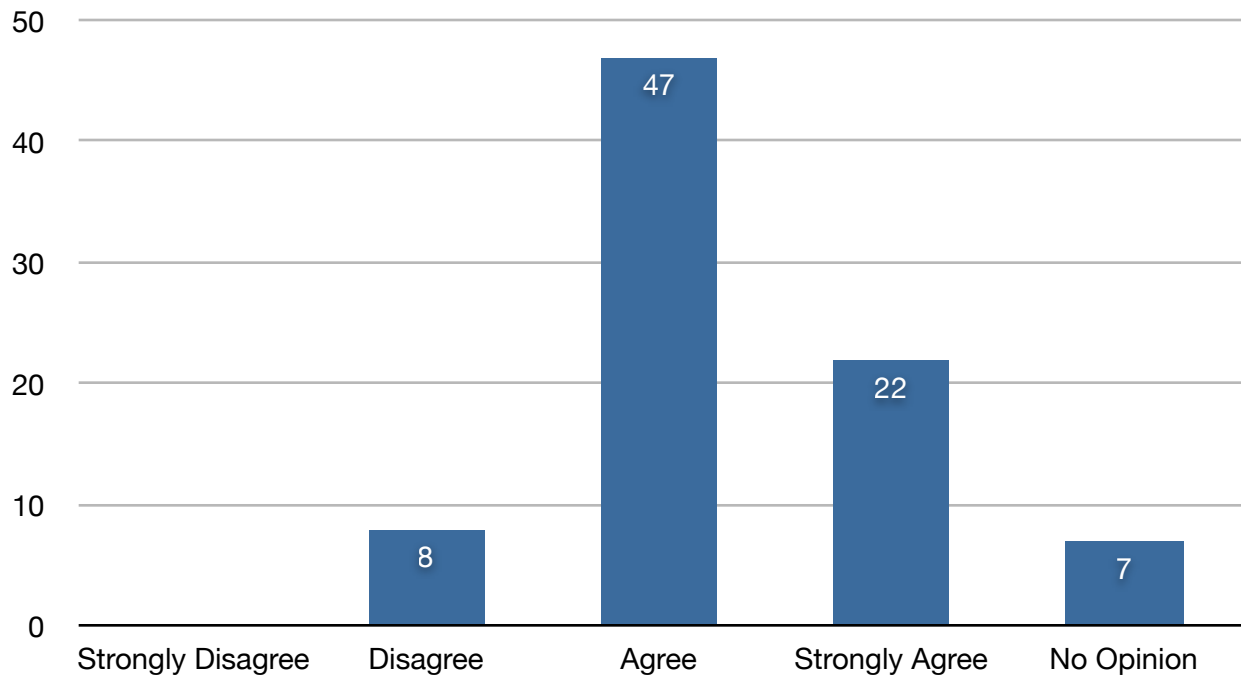

5 Questions

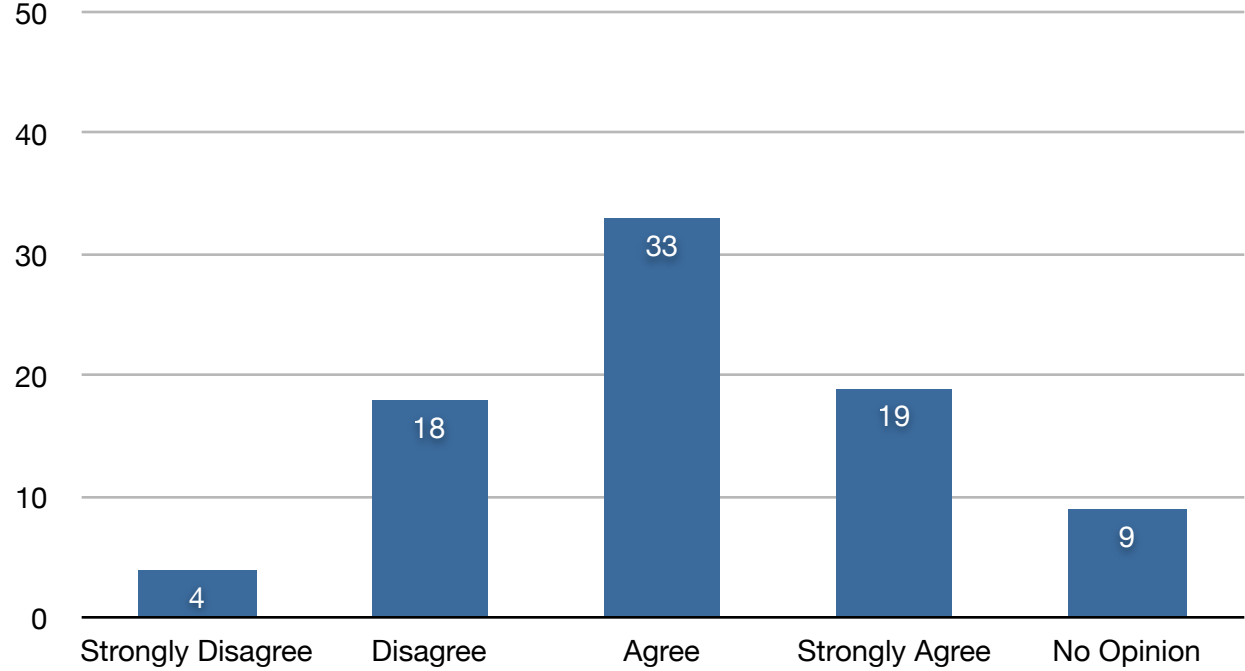

Q13: My child's learning in the distance learning classroom is comparable to his/her learning in the traditional classroom.

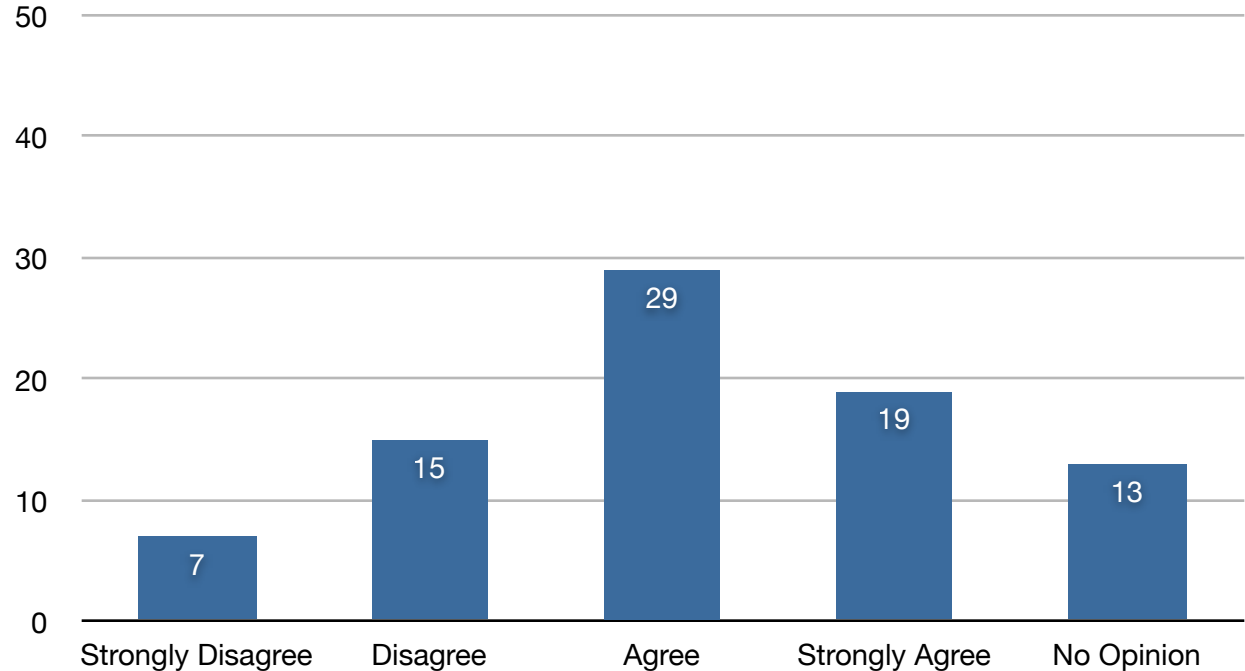

Q14: Students and teachers have adequate access to computers, technology, training, and support.

Q15: The four-school partnership improves financial security and increased educational opportunities, while respecting individual district interests.

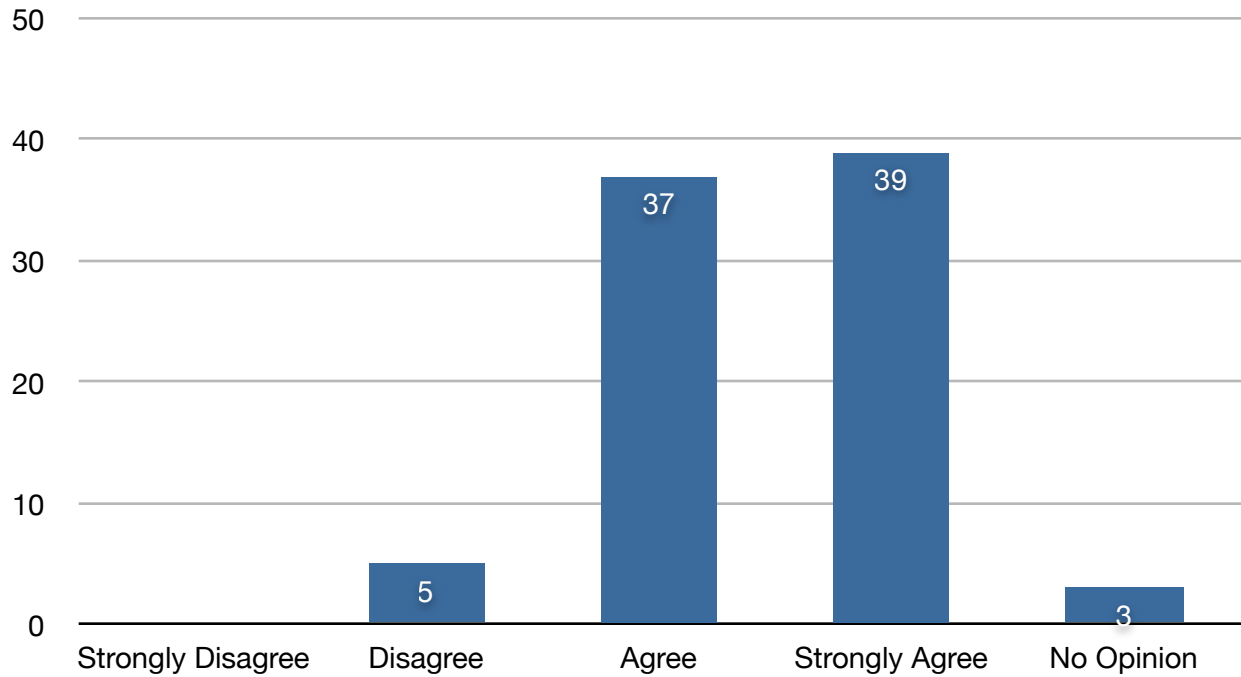

Q16: The four-school partnership seems to be working for all the communities.

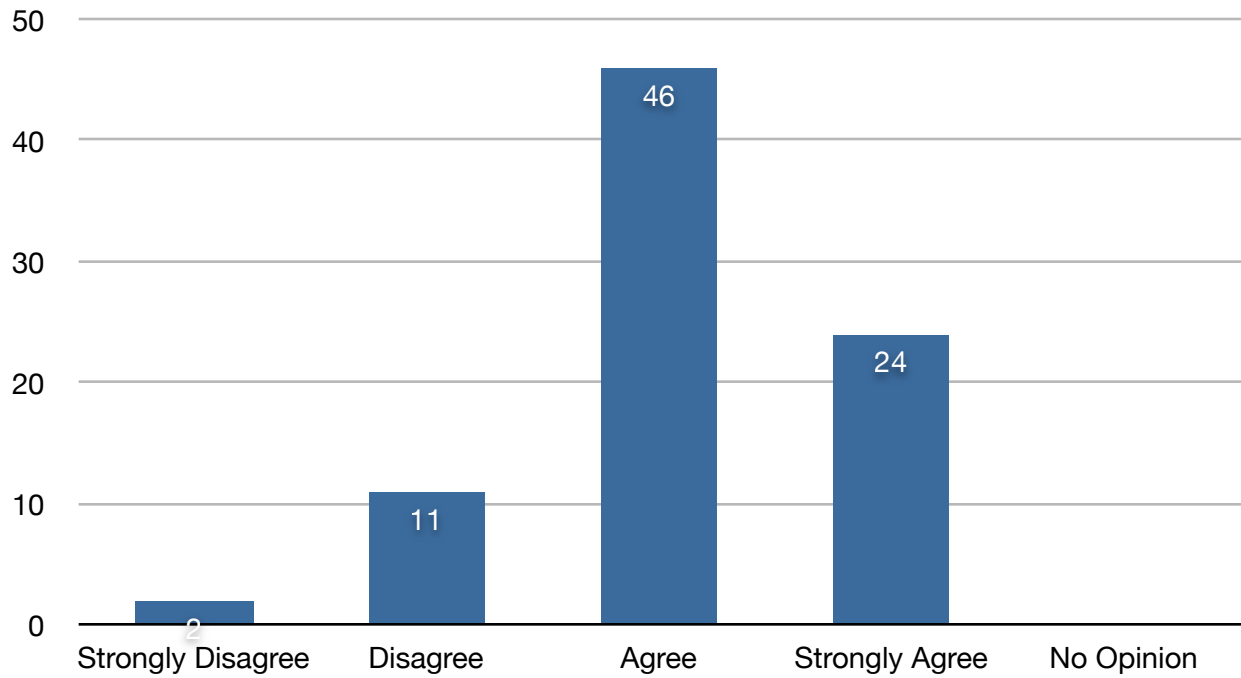

Section 3: The Future

6 Questions

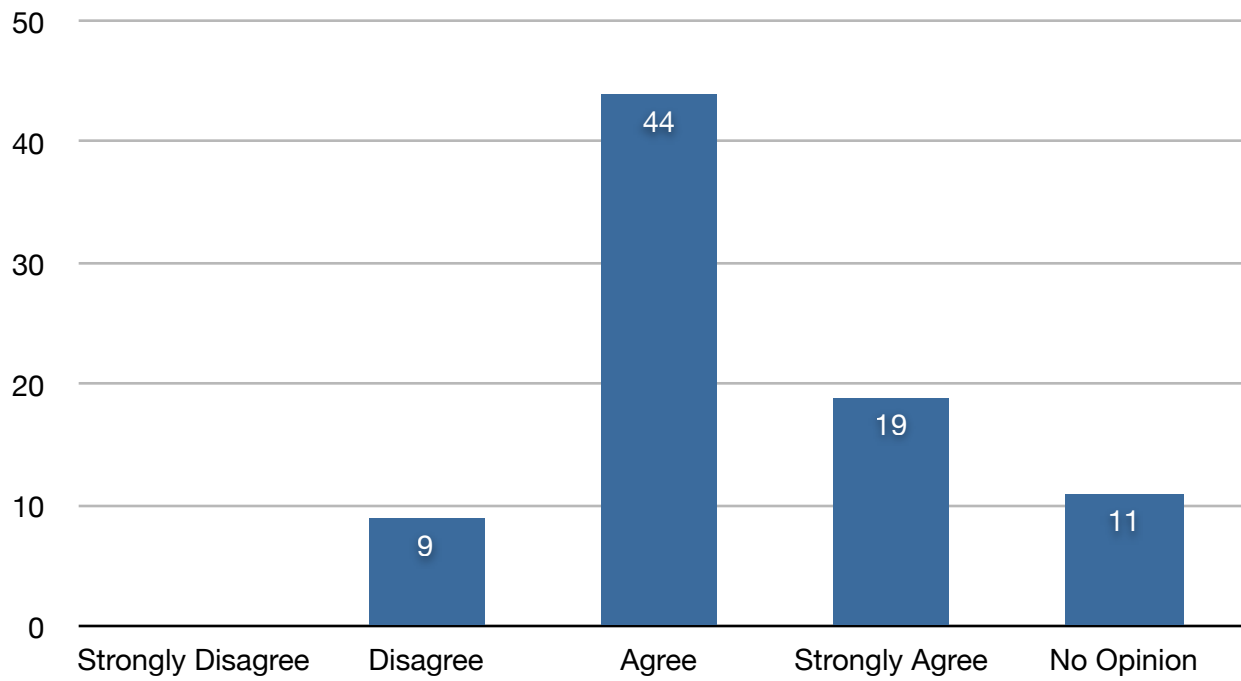

Q17: I support increased use of technology to promote 21st Century skills and increased academic opportunities.

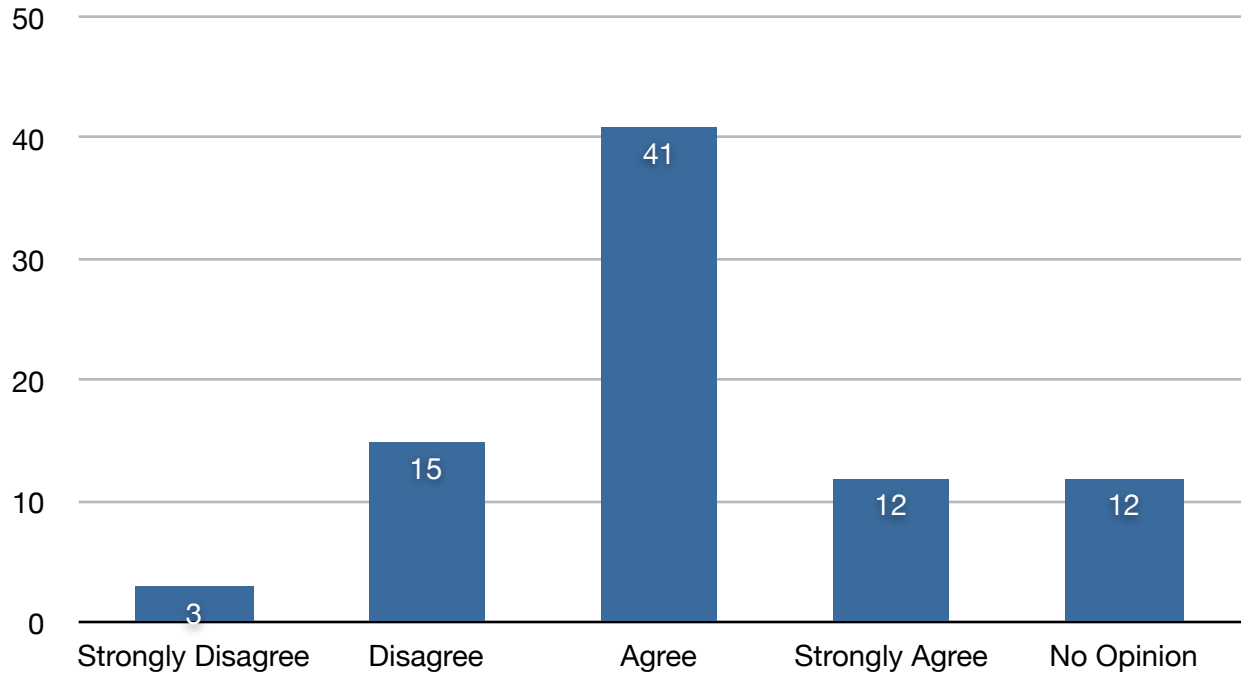

Q18: I believe our students are getting the education they need to prepare them to succeed in the 21st Century.

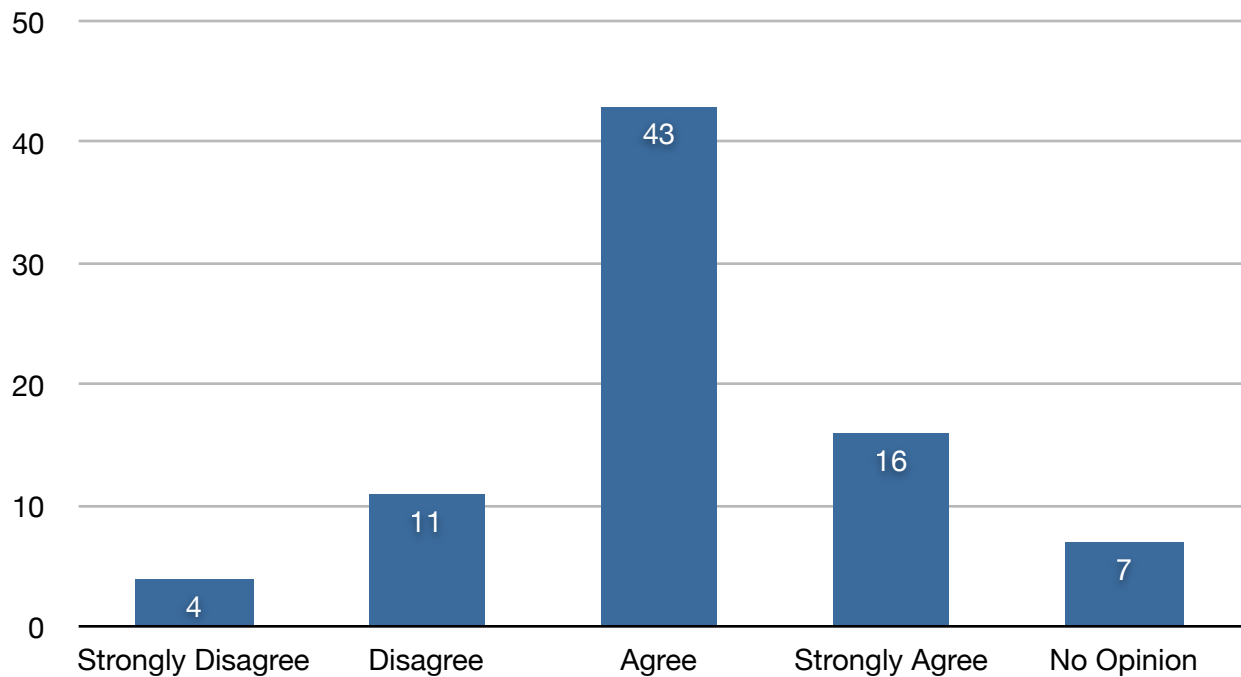

Q19: School is helping my child make connections to the community and transition to adulthood.

Q20: I understand the educational, social, and financial advantages and disadvantages of an elementary, middle school, and high school structure compared to a K-6 and 7-12 system.

Q21: I support combining or cooping athletic activities and other programs as declining student enrollment and/or participation jeopardize our ability to be competitive.

Q22: If enrollments continue to decline I would support combining or moving students to another school so they can continue to have access to learning opportunities and/or programs.

